Oct. 15, 1978

Dear Charles

Seldom in my life have I written to a restaurant but after we visited "Sherman's" a word to you was a must.

The "down home" attitude, the warm and cordial manner, the almost "fellowship"-like atmosphere and the happy airy grace of your establishment has not been the pleasure of this writer very often.

The food had the touch of a kitchen gourmet, served with style and grace and was a complete delight to the taste buds.

Of course, being with Mike, Elaine, and "Lunkin" completed a perfect evening.

Thank you, Charles, for adding a bit of spice and happiness to our family gathering on Tuesday last.

Robert and I wish nothing less than a 24 carat success and a bright star in your future!

kindest regards,

Henry Charles Coakley
